Veteran unemployment is more than double the US national average. Re-enlist and redeploy, or go home and be unemployed?

Veterans are living on the streets—as many as 23% of all homeless are veterans.

Veteran suicide rates are sky-rocketing—18 will take their own lives today.

SOCIAL NETWORKING

We combine personal relationships with web 2.0 to quickly make connections that lead to bolder programs. Already 1,000+ volunteers

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

The modern job search requires a strong professional referral network. We train veterans how to network and shape their future careers.

EMOTIONAL SUPPORT

Veterans trust veterans. Our network forms the foundation of an emotional support web.

PHYSICAL ASSISTANCE

We provide or coordinate assistance to our physically disabled veterans.

CORPORATE PARTNERSHIPS

Our corporate partners/sponsors are trained to know what to look for when hiring veterans and how to take advantage of their hidden talents and leadership.

The team that supported, loved, disciplined and cared for each other is suddenly separated.

Discharge, severance, separation—all terms used to describe departing the military. These unpleasant terms set a negative tone for the experience many of our new veterans enter as they return to being civilians.

This doesn't have to happen. Our unique approach pairs a new veteran with an experienced veteran mentor at point of discharge and at the new veteran's home city. Our mentors provide tips to translate one's military experience into high-impact civilian resumes, interview techniques, veteran business ownership opportunities and veterans benefits.

How do you go from "support and defend the Constitution of the United States" to "do you want fries with that"? You continue to find and develop your sense of purpose and value—that is GallantFew's bottom line.

Gallant Few, Inc is a 501c3 non-profit. We focus on Social Networking, Professional Development, Emotional Support and Physical Assistance to veterans; and Education & Referrals for corporations. There is no fee to any veteran for our services.
